"WHATSOEVER HE SAYS TO YOU, DO IT"

John 2:1-11

Mary, the Mother of Jesus, preached at The Wedding at Cana which was Jesus' first public appearance. Jesus changed water to wine and that was the first miracle He performed. The mother of Jesus was there indicating that Mary the mother of Jesus was related to the groom or the bride. And because of Mary, probably, Jesus and His Disciples were also invited. To run out of wine at such an important event would have been humiliating and embarrassing, not only for the bride and groom but also the entire family. Today, under this wedding, we are looking at the first and only sermon of Mary the Mother of Jesus.

- I. "Whatsoever He says to you, do it." John 2:5
Mary Sermon about Jesus was short, simple and clear. She believed the angel Gabriel when conceived of the Holy Ghost to give birth to Jesus. Mary knew Jesus is God. She had never seen Jesus perform any miracle but knew there was nothing He could not do. She didn't argue nor plead with them.
- II. Obedience to Christ, John 2:7; Matt. 5:1-10
Jesus knows who He is and therefore speaks with authority. He has power to forgive sin, power to heal, to deliver, to set free, to provide, to give life, He even has power over nature, and many more. Matt. 7:28,29 says the people were astonished at His teaching because He taught as one with authority.
- III. Obedience brought the Miracle, John 2:7,8
The people did exactly what He commanded them to do and the water turned into wine. These people had never seen Jesus perform a miracle but they believed the Sermon that Mary preached about Jesus and did "whatsoever He told them to do".
There was no other way to receive God's miracles than obedience.
