The Arm of the Lord

Exodus 6:6-8; 2 Chron. 32, 33

God has an arm that He reveals it to us if we care enough to know and experience the help and power of His arm. God redeemed Israel, brought them from under the burdens and bondage of the Egyptians with an outstretched arm. The Arm of the Lord is described as Holy, Mighty, Right, Strong, High, or Outstretched. God's arm can do all things unlike the arm of flesh. (Psalm 44:3).

ARM OF THE FLESH

To rely and trust in man is to depend upon the arm of flesh (Jer. 17:5). To go down to Egypt and to depend upon Pharaoh is to trust in the arms of flesh which only brings a curse upon one's life, Is. 30:1-5.

To rely and trust in physical weapons and number of people when engaged in warfare is to trust in the arm of flesh that will utterly fail (2 Chr. 32:7,8).

We are counseled and admonished in the scriptures never to put our confidence in man, be they kings, princes, prophets, etc. (Ps. 118:8,9).

No matter how strong and powerful the arm of flesh might seem, we need to know that it can be broken.

ARM OF THE FATHER

God is a Father unto us. He will never fold His arm but will stretch it out for our benefit bringing us salvation, victory, deliverance, protection, provision, etc. The arm of the Lord expresses His miraculous power. The glorious benefits of the arm of the Lord include:

- (1) Salvation (Isaiah 59:16; 63:5)
- (2) Preservation and protection (Isaiah 62:8,9))
- (3) Divine donation of resources (Jer. 27:5-8; Ps. 44:3)
- (4) Victory over our enemies (Ps. 89:10)
- (5) Care and compassion of the Almighty (Is. 33:2; 40:11; 51:5)
- (6) Breaking the power and hold of the oppressor over us (Job 35:9)
- (7) Constant refreshing and fruitfulness (Jer. 17:7,8).
